

High School softball roundup

Foster, Lamar drop tough battles; Travis JV rolls pair

FROM COACHES REPORTS

Brazosport 3, Foster 0

Foster dropped a tough decision to Brazosport

Blair Gerken led the way for Foster with a .500 effort, while Jamie Moreno and Kathleen Zellers each added a hit.

Sweeny 3, Lamar 0

Sweeny held Lamar to just one hit and took advantage of four errors to claim the victory at Lady Mustang Softball Field.

Bonnie Matak delivered the only Lady Mustang hit. Kimberly Guerrero gave a solid effort on the hill for Lamar, now 2-7 on the year.

EB takes consolation

East Bernard edged Smithville 1-0 to win the consolation title of the Rice Consolidated Softball Tournament.

Winning pitcher Courtney Repka struck out 15 and allowed two hits. She was named the All-tournament pitcher, and teammate Nicole Tielke earned All-tourney honors in center.

In the win, Lindsey Davis delivered a sacrifice bunt, setting up

Paula Lopez's RBI to put the Brahmarettes on top.

East Bernard made the finals by edging Schulenburg, 2-0. Repka fanned 17 and allowed just one hit in the win.

Recording hits were Repka, Davis, Lopez, Haley Dawson, Srubar and Courtney Anthony (two hits, RBI).

Junior Varsity

Travis 12, Bush 0

Travis got balanced hitting and strong pitching to rout Bush Tuesday night.

Delivering two hits apiece for the Lady Tigers were Becca Rush, Kim Pepper and Holly Berger.

Winning pitcher Alexis Estrada threw a one-hitter and struck out nine as Travis moved to 3-1 in District 23-5A play and 6-3 overall.

Travis 15, Kempner 0

Travis pounded out 15 hits to mow down Kempner in District 23-5A action.

Alexis Estrada got the win for the Lady Tigers, who also got two hits each from Estrada, Rachel Webster, Becca Rush, Kim Pepper and Chaleste Love.