

Softball Tournament Roundup

Needville off to hot start

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Needville opened LCISD Tournament play with two wins, starting with a 10-0 rout of Terry at George Park.

Lady Jay pitcher Cally Falls threw a no-hitter and struck out 11 in her first game back since last weekend's Brazoswood Tournament.

Becca Rademacher was 3-for-4 with three runs scored, while Falls, Cierra Wieghat and Jenny Stack each registered two hits.

In Game 2, Needville eased past Mayde Creek 3-1.

Courtney Cox got the start and went six innings, allowing just four hits and one run.

The Lady Jays tallied twice in the first when Rademacher reached on an error and scored on a Rodriguez triple. Shelby Parham then singled in Alyssa Rodriguez.

Terry came back later in the day to give Spring Woods a battle before falling, 7-6.

The Lady Rangers pounded out 12 hits. Kelly Petrosky went the distance in a losing effort, Delivering two hits each were Petrosky, Savannah Thorson, Kayla Worley and Brittany Reyes.

Seguin Tournament

SEGUIN — Travis split its first two games at Thursday's Seguin Tournament.

The Lady Tigers dropped a 5-1 decision to Lockhart, but bounced back to outscore Cibola Steele, 11-7.

In the loss to Lockhart, Alexis Estrada struck out 11, but was hurt by six Travis errors. Adding two hits each were Kaitlyn Jones and Rachel Webster.

In the win over Steele, Kim Pepper tripled and drove in two runs, while two hits apiece were delivered by Silva, Jones, Melissa Billingsley and Rachel Webster.