

High School varsity softball

Lady Jays rally past C'bus to start district

FROM COACHES REPORTS

Needville 3, Columbus 2

COLUMBUS — Needville rallied for two runs in the top of the seventh to stun Columbus in the District 24-3A opener Tuesday night.

Down 2-1, Cally Falls singled and Becca Rademacher was hit by a pitch with two out After Rademacher stole second, Kayla Johns walked to load the bases. Shelby Parham then delivered a two-run blast down the left-field line.

Falls got the win, allowing four hits and striking out 10.

The Lady Jays scored in the top of the first. Cheyenne Parent walked, Cierra Weighat reached on a slap hit and Rademacher singled to plate Parent.

East Bernard 15, Hitchcock 0

HITCHCOCK — East Bernard delivered a solid all-around performance in blanking Hitchcock in District 27-2A action.

The Brahmarettes scored six in the second and seven in the third to bring an early end to the contest. Courtney Repka fanned eight and did not allow a hit.

Delivering a hit and 2 RBIs were Repka, Katie Dawson, Nicole Tielke, Courtney Krenek and Megan Srubar.

Other hits were added by Brittney Wilcox, Paula Lopez and Courtney Anthony.

Lamar 7, Dulles 6

After trailing for most of the game, Lamar (9-8) scored twice in the bottom of the sixth and held on to trim Class 5A Dulles.

The Lady Mustangs trailed 4-0 before going up 5-4 in the fifth. Dulles bounced back with two runs to take the lead before Lamar rallied again.

Kimberly Guerrero picked up her sixth victory on the year, scattering 13 Dulles hits.

Leading the way for the Mustangs offensively were Bonnie Matak and

Photo courtesy of Lindsey Marchbanks

Dominating effort

Foster's varsity softball team won its fourth straight LCISD Tournament title. Team members are bottom row from left, Alexa Delgado, Dana Criswell and Tabitha Rodriguez; middle row, Tiffany Rodriguez, Kristin Dudley, Jamie Moreno, Erin Kocich and Keely Shuler; top row, Courtney Cordaway, Emily Bledsoe, Blair Gerken, Kathleen Zellers, Kari Burns and Haley Starkey.

Stacie Vacek with triples, Annalise Romo and Jaime Ditman each with 2 RBI's and two runs scored by Jaime Ditman.

Foster 9, College Park 4

THE WOODLANDS — Foster (8-3) exploded in the final inning to race past College Park in non-district action.

Emily Bledsoe, Kathleen Zellers and Alexa Delgado led the offensive charge.

Bledsoe sparked the defense with nine put outs, while Kristin Dudley came in to pitch in the fifth inning and got the win.

Junior Varsity

Travis 5, Elkins 1

SUGAR LAND — Travis continued its winning ways Tuesday, roaring past Elkins.

Kim Pepper, Becca Rush and Allison Laurenzana registered doubles and Rachel Webster collected two hits for the Lady Tigers.

Travis pitcher Alexis Estrada scattered five hits and struck out three in a winning effort.