

Softball Roundup

Prihoda, Lady Jays roar past Wharton

FROM COACHES' REPORTS

Needville 13, Wharton 2

NEEDVILLE — A six-run first and a 6-RBI night by Shauni Prihoda propelled Needville to an easy District 26-3A run-rule victory over Wharton Tuesday night at Blue Jay Sports Complex.

In the first, Becca Rademacher scored on a Shelby Parham grounder and an error got Alyssa Rodriguez home. After Courtney Cox singled and Cierra Wieghat walked to load the bases, Julie Stack singled in Jenny Stack and Prihoda (3-for-3) cleared the bases with a triple to right center.

The lead grew to 7-0 in the second when Parham singled and scored on Cox's infield single.

Two runs in the third made it a 9-0 game as Rademacher singled in Prihoda and Parham singled in Rademacher.

Four more scored in the fourth as Prihoda cleared the bases for the second time and Rademacher singled in Prihoda.

Cally Falls scattered five hits and allowed one earned run, striking out four.

Travis 19, Willowridge 0

MISSOURI CITY — Travis exploded for seven and nine runs in the first two innings to rout Willowridge in three innings Tuesday.

The Lady Tigers got a two-run homer from winning pitcher Taylor Bishop, who allowed just one hit in three innings of work.

Becca Rush added a double and a triple, driving in five runs.

Hallettsville 1, East Bernard 0

HALLETTSVILLE — Hallettsville got a run in the bottom of the 10th inning to stun state-ranked East Bernard Tuesday.

The Brahmarettes stranded base runners for most of the contest, getting two hits from both Liz Reyes and Brittney Wilcox, along with a hit and two walks from Cameron Kieler.

Losing pitcher Courtney Repka struck out 13 and scattered four hits.

Rice Cons. 13, Brazos 3

ALTAIR — Rice Consolidated made the most of six hits and eight Brazos errors to get the District 26-2A win over the Cougarettes.

Recording hits for Brazos were Cheyelonda Roberts, Jamie Horelica and starting pitcher Shelby Sulak, who got the loss.

District 23-4A

In District 23-4A action, Foster fell to Bay City, 3-0.