Lamar close to playoffs

FROM COACHES' REPORTS

Lamar Consolidated moved closer to a playoff berth Tuesday by roaring past Terry 10-2.

The Lady Mustangs can make the playoffs with a win. The only way Terry can advance is if it beats Foster and Lamar loses to El Campo in Friday's season finale.

Annalise Romo went the distance for Lamar, allowing just five hits and striking out five.

The Lady Mustangs pounded Lady Ranger pitching for 18 hits, led by 4-for-5 efforts from Marissa Thome and Elyssa Alvarado.

Romo went 3-for-5, while 2-for-4 efforts came from Colleen Blinka and Morgan Hein, who had a two-run double and 3 RBIs. Megan Elledge added a run-scoring hit.

In other district action, Bay

City blanked the Lady Falcons 3-0.

Elkins 6, Travis 4

Elkins edged Travis (11-5, 18-9) in a District 23-5A contest.

The Lady Tigers got three runs in the fifth. Holly Berger scored on a LeAnne Salas double. Salas scored when Kaitlyn Jones reached on an error and Melissa Billingsley doubled in Jones.

The Travis run in the seventh came on a Billingsley RBI single, scoring Sara Aguilar.

Weimar 16, Brazos 1

WEIMAR — Weimar scored nine in the first and seven in the second to run-rule Brazos (1-9, 2-18) Monday night.

Jamie Horelica was 2-for-2 and drove in the lone Cougarette run in the first. Also adding a hit was Lauren Webber.
