Lady Mustangs stun EC; Terry wins finale

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Lamar Consolidated denied El Campo a share of the District 24-4A championship Saturday, rallying to stun the Lady Birds 5-4 at Lamar Mustang Softball Field.

With the win, Lamar moves into the playoffs as the No. 3 seed from the district, while the outcome also gave Foster the outright championship.

Down 4-1 heading into the bottom of the seventh, the Lady Mustangs rallied for four runs, three coming with two out. Elyssa Alvarado led off with a single, went to third on a Bonnie Matak double and scored on Marissa Thome's single.

Then with two out, Kenna Koscinski tied the game with a two-run single. Stacie Vacek stepped up and ripped a double off the center-field fence, scoring pinch-runner Valerie Do with the winning run.

Winning pitcher Kimberly Guerrero allowed just four hits and struck out four for the Lady Mustangs.

Terry 14, Seven Lakes 3

Terry (3-7, 12-12) ended its season on a high note, routing Seven Lakes in six innings.

A four-run first and a six-run fifth highlighted a 10-hit attack.

Nicollette Drabek walked at her first at bat, then went 4 for 4 at the plate with 4 RBIs. She delivered a two-run double in the sixth.

Lady Ranger winning pitcher Caitlin Swain fanned 10 and allowed just three hits.

Austin 4, Hightower 0

SUGAR LAND --- Austin's Amanda VanTilborg tossed a one-hitter as Austin closed in on the playoffs with a win over Hightower.

The Lady Bulldogs pounded 10 hits and put the game away with a three-run fifth.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Travis splits last two

SUGAR LAND — Travis closed out its first season by splitting its final two games.

In the season finale, the Lady Tigers pounded Marshall, 19-3. Rush, Caitlin Brown, Nicole Thibodeaux and Danielle Piercy led the hit parade for the Travis (20-8), who finished the season third in District 23-5A play.

Maryssa Silva was the winning pitcher.

On Friday, Clements scored in its last at bat to upend Travis 3-2.

Alexis Estrada, Becca Rush, Kim Pepper and Holly Berger delivered hits for the Lady Tigers.
