Falls, 4-run 6th key Lady Jay road win

FROM COACHES REPORTS

STAFFORD — Needville got a two-hit shutout from ace Cally Falls and used a four-run sixth to run away from Stafford 7-0 in a Friday's District 26-3A contest.

Falls struck out nine and did not walk a batter in an impressive outing on the road.

Up 3-0, the Lady Jays exploded in the top of the sixth.

Cierra Wieghat and Julie Kalmus reached on infield hits and moved into scoring position on a passed ball. Both scored on Julie Stack's triple to left center.

Stack scored when Shauni Prihoda reached on an error. After Prihoda stole second, she scored easily on Becca Rademacher's triple to the gap in right center.

Needville took a 1-0 lead in the first when Alyssa Rodriguez singled and eventually scored on a Jenny Stack base hit to center.

A run in the third upped the lead to 2-0. Rademacher doubled to left center, went to third on a passed ball and scored on Rodriguez's RBI grounder to second.

Needville's third run came across in the fifth when Rademacher singled and eventually scored on Shelby Parham's grounder to third.

Clements 10, Travis 0

Liz Paul struck out 12 and handcuffed Travis on two hits as undefeated Clements (9-0 in District 23-5A) rolled past the Lady Tigers at Tiger Field.

Alexis Estrada went the distance for Travis. She allowed all 15 Clements hits and 10 runs, six earned.
