

Softball Roundup

Needville pounds Royal; Foster rallies by Terry

FROM COACHES REPORTS

Needville 17, Royal 0 (3)

NEEDVILLE — Needville put Royal out of its misery early, run-ruling the Lady Falcons in 2 1/2 innings.

The Lady Jays scored 14 second-inning runs, while winning pitcher Cally Falls retired all nine batters she faced, striking out seven.

Jenny Stack paced a 12-hit Needville attack by going 3-for-3, including two 2-run homers in the second inning explosion.

Contributing RBI hits to kick off the second were Julie Stack with a double and Shauni Prihoda with an inside-the-park three-run homer.

After Jenny Stack homered,

Julie Stack delivered a two-run double and Alyssa Rodriguez added a two-run single. Jenny Stack closed the inning with a homer over the center-field fence.

Driving in runs during a three-run first were Jenny Stack with a base hit and Courtney Cox with a triple.

Foster 8, Terry 5

Terry made Foster sweat for five innings before the Lady Falcons used a three-run sixth to pull out the District 23-4A victory Tuesday night at Lady Ranger Field.

Down 5-4, the Lady Falcons struck in the sixth. Kelli Brown reached and scored on a Jamie Moreno triple to tie the game. That was followed by run-producing hits by Haley Russell and Dana David.

Keely Shuler overcame a four-run fourth off six Lady Ranger hits to get the victory.

Travis 16, Marshall 0 (5)

MISSOURI CITY — Travis made good use of 13 hits and nine Marshall errors to rout the Lady Buffs in Tuesday's District 23-5A encounter.

Rachel Webster went 3-for-4, while two hits apiece were delivered by Becca Rush (4 RBIs), Sabrina Gonzales (3 RBIs) and Kim Pepper for the Lady Tigers (7-4 in district).

Winning pitcher Taylor Bishop threw a one-hit shutout. She struck out nine and walked two.

El Campo 7, Lamar 0

EL CAMPO — Katlyn Urbanovsky scattered six hits as El

Campo got the best of a game Lamar Consolidated squad in District 23-4A action Tuesday night.

Elyssa Alvarado went 3-for-3 as Lamar had some scoring opportunities, but hit balls went right at Lady Cat defenders.

Also adding base hits for the Lady Mustangs were Annalise Romo, Colleen Blinka and Alisha Gonzales.

East Bernard 15, Brazos 0 (3)

EAST BERNARD — Courtney Repka added another no-hitter to the history books, striking out all nine Brazos batters over three innings as East Bernard run-ruled the Cougarettes.

Twelve Brazos errors ruined a solid pitching effort by Shelby Sulak, who allowed just five hits and struck out three.