

Varsity Softball Roundup

Foster edges Lamar, 2-0

FROM COACHES REPORTS

Foster 2, Lamar 0

Keely Shuler threw a five-hit shutout as Foster edged Lamar Consolidated Friday night at Lady Falcon Softball Field.

Annalise Romo scattered seven hits in 6-2/3 innings. She allowed solo runs in the fourth and fifth innings, just one earned, a in solid effort for the Lady Mustangs.

Bel Ramos was 2-for-3 for Lamar, while solo hits were added by Romo, Jordan Waldron and Kimberly Wallace.

In other District 24-4A action, Terry lost to Bay City, 10-2, and El Campo defeated Seven Lakes, 7-1.

Austin 15, Marshall 0

Austin roared past Marshall in a four-inning contest, improving to 9-2 in District 23-5A play.

Morgan Hawking tossed a four-inning no-hitter to get the win. She struck out nine.

Leading the Lady Bulldog hit parade was Charly Dement with 2 RBIs. Courtney Shaw scored three runs, while two runs were added by Hawkins, Jessaca Spears, Sara Bair and Caitlyn Barnes.

Elkins 5, Travis 0

MISSOURI CITY — Elkins used extra-base hits and the pitching of Nicole Gremillon to take care of Travis in District 23-5A action.

Travis got just four hits off Gremillon — two hits by Becca Rush and base hits by Holly Berger and Kim Pepper.

Amber Garza had a two-run double and Chelsea Kovich launched a two-run homer off Lady Tiger hurler Alexis Estrada.